"I have had the privilege of attending many of LouKa's class offerings and can't recommend them highly enough. I've left each course a much better shooter with a greatly enhanced depth of knowledge on the subject matter presented. All the LouKa cadre I've met and learned from are hard-working, creative, and motivating and take a vested interest in each student's experience and performance. I've been impressed with their attention to detail, it's inclusion of the most current information/technical knowledge as well as the phenomenal learning environment. Lou Ann is the consummate professional instructor and her courses are engaging, challenging, and most importantly, effective. I am definitely looking forward to the next LouKa experience!" ---Guru Diana Rathborne- Rathborne Training-Owner/Customized Martial Arts and Self Defense Training
