Time: 0800-1700

Fee: $199.00

Purpose: This one day custom class is designed for officers who may not have immediate access to a long gun while responding to an active killer situation. For situations that require precision at greater distances, crowded environments, and engaging targets while moving as a sole respondent and with a partner. The class is applicable to school recourse officers, detectives, probation and parole, mountain bike officers, etc.

Training goals:

- Improve officer's handgun skills with a challenging and safe training environment which allows them to explore their current abilities and to provide opportunities to improve shooting discipline and operational performance in chaotic environments.
- Reduce liability in deadly force situations through challenging live fire training exercises relative to environments such as a school, church, courtroom, parking lot, mall, etc.

Attendee Requirements:

Full duty gear specific to job assignment

300 rounds of pistol ammunition

Body armor

Brimmed hat, ear protection, and wrap around shatter resistant eye protection

Water or a hydration system and simple form of carbohydrate

Proper dress for weather conditions

About LouKa Tactical: In business since 1999 it is the largest female owned and operated company of its kind with a diverse cadre of instructors with very unique talents. Co-owner Lou Ann Hamblin retired from law enforcement having served for 22 years working uniform and training as well as undercover to include a special assignment with the DEA. She holds a master's degree in performance technology from the University of Michigan and is a certified firearms and defensive tactics instructor in a variety of disciplines. She is a Team One Network adjunct instructor, H&K Master Pistol Instructor, and IALEFI Master Firearms Instructor-trainer. She instructs internationally in the areas of instructor development, training for specialty units and female officers. Lou Ann also serves on the Board of Directors for IALEFI.
